

When you own San Francisco...

Imagine it's 2037. You've become an expert at something and now you have some property in San Francisco. What will you put there?

First, make a list of different types of businesses and organizations. Remember, it will be the future, so you can be creative.

Fast Food Restaurant, Computer Store, Museum, Flying Robot
Clubhouse,

---

---

---

---

---

---

We're not looking for brand names like McDonald's or Apple, we're looking for types of places, like "fast food restaurant", "computer store", or "museum".

Compare your list with classmates to get more ideas.

What type of business or organization will you open on your property? _____

What will you call it? Will you use your name? Will you use a pun?

Think of at least three ideas, and see which your classmates like best.

---

---

---

What will your sign look like?

Make a mural for the community.

Now that you are a business owner, you want to do something for the community. You have space on your wall. How can you decorate it to benefit the community?

Look back to your neighborhood research to help thing about what will be good for the community.

When you have your idea, use the templates to design your space.

